Table of Contents

GENERAL SESSION

Animal instincts: To succeed with humans, listen, learn and lead
Morgan J. McArthur ................................................................. 1

Healthy people, healthy practice: Tools to enhance health and wellbeing
Laurie Fonken ........................................................................ 6

Coping with the stress of practice
Elizabeth Brock ........................................................................ 8

Practical immunology and beef and dairy vx protocols: Starting from ground zero—what, when, and how
Chris Chase ............................................................................ 10

Dinner plan killers: Blocked goats, pig C-sections, and pregnancy toxemia
Meredyth Jones ...................................................................... 19

DAIRY CLINICAL SKILLS

LDA surgery tips and aftercare for recent grads
Scott Earnest ........................................................................... 24

Practical rules and tools of colostrum management
Jennifer Rowntree .................................................................. 28

BEEF CLINICAL SKILLS

How to win clients by taking the right samples and ordering the "best tests" for bovine respiratory disease
Corale Dorn ............................................................................ 31

But what does it taste like? How to get your clients through a complete scour workup in their herd
Corale Dorn ............................................................................ 33

Finding the answer in that mess of numbers
Meredyth Jones ..................................................................... 35

Zoonotic disease - messaging to producers
Danelle A. Bickett-Weddle .......................................................... 39

BEEF CONSULTING SKILLS

How to open doors for producers to use your services
Keelan Lewis ........................................................................... 41

We’ve been doing it all wrong: Working with cattle producers to right the parasite control ship
Meredyth Jones ..................................................................... 43

DAIRY CONSULTING SKILLS

Introducing milk quality services to your practice
Scott Earnest ........................................................................... 46

Making the right culling decisions on the dairy: Helping young veterinarians advocate for their patients and prevent animal suffering
Jennifer Fitchhorn-Walker .......................................................... 49

DAIRY SESSION

Becoming the associate: Finding your niche and keys to personal and professional success
Eric J. Rooker ........................................................................... 51

© Copyright American Association of Bovine Practitioners; open access distribution.
Parlor analysis – parlor anatomy, basic system tests and how to perform this service
David T. Brennan ................................................................. 58
Buying into a practice – Personal experience and advice for new grads
Patrick Brinson ................................................................. 61
Buying into a large animal ambulatory practice: The good, the bad, and the finances
Cassandra Gewiss ............................................................... 63
Salmonella in dairy calves: Who do outbreaks occur in well managed herds?
Donald C. Sockett ............................................................... 66
Basics of dairy diet design: Feeds and how they are included in diets
Enrique Schcolnik ............................................................... 70
Cattle lameness – Digital dermatitis prevention and control in the face of reservoirs and chronic DD lesions
Dörte Döpfer ................................................................. 74
Practical pain management in cows and calves – Keys to success
Johann F. Coetzee ................................................................. 77
FARM Program – Services offered to get your producers compliant
David T. Brennan ................................................................. 84

BEEF SESSION
Preconditioning pays: Developing successful preconditioning protocols
Catherine J. Maguire ............................................................... 86
Flippin' the iceberg: A systems thinking approach to immunology and vaccination protocols in beef cow-calf systems
David Rethorst ................................................................. 90
Starting from scratch
Lesley M. Moser ................................................................. 98
Adding value to your veterinary practice with producer education resources
Julia Herman ................................................................. 103
Ancillary bovine respiratory disease therapy: What adding something with an antibiotic does for our patients
Michael D. Apley ............................................................... 106
Implementing pain management into your beef cattle practice
Renée Dewell ................................................................. 110
Records, chute-side reports, what can new grads do?
John D. Bolinger ................................................................. 112
The clueless funny farm
Chelsea Bland Smith ............................................................. 117

HOT TOPIC
You can do this: Applying clinical pharmacology in practice
Michael D. Apley ............................................................... 120

Notice to Readers
Articles published in the Proceedings of the American Association of Bovine Practitioners are not peer-reviewed or refereed. All statements, opinions and conclusions contained in articles in the Proceedings are those of the author(s), and are not necessarily those of the American Association of Bovine Practitioners (AABP) unless specifically approved by the AABP Board of Directors.