2002-2003
Executive Review Panel

Dr. Carolyn McCleight, Associate Professor, and Journal Editor
Department of Professional Programs
Texas A&M International University

Dr. Terry Shepherd, Associate Professor
Department of Special Populations
Texas A&M International University

Dr. Stanley D. Ivie, Professor
Department of Educational Leadership
Texas Woman’s University

Dr. Barbara Greybeck, Associate Professor
Dept. of Special Populations and Director for the Eduardo Hinojosa Reading Center
Texas A&M International University

Dr. Claudio Salinas, Assistant Professor
Department of Professional Programs
Texas A&M International University

Ms. Cynthia Stone
Socorro ISD-USP Mentor, EL Paso

Ms. Nancy Lara
Socorro I.S.D., El Paso

Typesetting and Design
Rosie Coronado, Publications
Office of Public Affairs and Information Services

Volume 2, 2003

Texas A & M International University is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer committed to excellence. Texas A&M International has been a member of the Texas A&M University System since September 1989.

Table of Contents

Message from the Dean, Dr. Rosa Maria Vida
Editor’s Note, Dr. Carolyn McCleight

Articles

Does the Reconstruction Process Improve a School? Case of Hacienda Heights by Ana Maria Soledad .......... 4
Survival Counseling Skills for New Teachers by Trace Pirtle, Ed. D. and Patricia Perez .......................... 8
Where Have All the Teachers Gone? Administrative Support of New Teachers by Louise Ann Powell .................. 11

Book Reviews ................................................................ 14

Children as Pawns: The Politics of Educational Reform by T. A. Hasci (2002) by Dr. Kathy L. Adams, Wright State University, Dayton, Ohio
Rekindling the Flame: Principals Combating Teacher Burnout by B. L. Brock and M. L. Grady (2000) by Grant Hambright, Wright State University, Dayton, OH.

Research Summaries .................................................. 16

Preparing Teachers Through a Field Experience in a Children’s Writing Camp by Drs. Barbara Greybeck and Lila Canizales, and Ms. Lizette Villa
Using Team-based Classrooms to Facilitate Learner-Centered Classes by Dr. Kimberly Fols
Scoring High on New Testing in Texas by Fully Implementing TAKS Curriculum, Ready or Not? by Drs. W. Fred Ivy and Claudio Salinas

Thesis Abstracts ......................................................... 18

Administrator Perceptions of the Effects of Principal Leadership Behavior on Vice-Principal Job Performance in a South Texas High School by Angel Briones (2002).
A Comparative Study of Open and Closed Campuses at Two South Texas High Schools Examining Attendance and Academic Achievement Data during Third Block by Robert Chaney (2001).
A Comparative Study of Exemplary School Administrator Characteristics as derived from the Texas Principal Competencies by A. F. Angie Doak (2002).

Submission Guidelines .............................................. 22