The Laffite Study Group was formed in 1975 for the purpose of uniting individuals who share an interest in Jean Laffite's role in American history, folklore and literature. Members pay annual dues and receive The Life and Times of Jean Laffite, a collection of occasional papers, and the LSG Newsletter, published quarterly.

 Contributions and correspondence relating to LTJL should be sent to the Managing Editor: Robert C. Vogel, 6971 Homestead Avenue South, Cottage Grove, Minnesota 55016.

 Laffite Study Group memberships are available in the following categories: regular individual ($6.00, $7.50 outside the U.S.), institutional ($6.00), sustaining ($20.00) and life ($100.00). Queries concerning membership dues, subscriptions and donations should be addressed to the Secretary-Treasurer: John L. Howells, 2570 Kevin Lane, Houston, Texas 77043.

 Single copies of The Life and Times of Jean Laffite, Number VI, are available to non-members at a cost of six dollars, plus postage and handling.

 Cover: Jean Laffite to George Graham, Galveston, 26 August, 1818. (For English translation, see page 9, infra.) Graham-Laffite Correspondence, Special Agents, Department of State MSS, Library of Congress.