The history of ZuPreem® started with an idea - an idea whose time had come and an idea that would change the way we look at the role of nutrition in the lives of all animals. Through vision and innovation, the company has expanded the original family of ZuPreem products to include a complete line of life-stage diets for exotic birds that includes Embrace®, Hand-Feeding Formulas, AvianWeaning™ Diet, AvianMaintenance FruitBlend™ and Natural Diets, AvianBreeder™ Diets, and Crunch™ Treats. ZuPreem has the same commitment today that it had more than 40 years ago – the same commitment to the welfare of all animals in our worldwide community, the same commitment to state-of-the-arts nutrition research and the same commitment to the highest quality standards of manufacturing and quality control. www.zupreem.com

Gamini Ratnavira was born and raised in Sri Lanka. As a self-taught artist he uses his photographic memory and life experiences to produce vibrant, colorful images of the rain forest flora and fauna, which are complimented with intriguing stories and research information about each painting. His paintings reveal his love for art coupled with an unrestrained, lifelong reverence for nature and animals.

He has traveled to over 36 countries researching endangered wildlife. Peter Scott and exchanged views of artwork at the wildfowl trust in England. Gamini stayed with Sir David Attenborough for many years. He has illustrated several species for Birdlife International. He was a member of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds. Gamini's birdwatching list exceeds 4000 species. He illustrated several plates in the Field Guide to the Birds of Peru by Dr. James Clements. Gamini stayed with Sir Peter Scott and exchanged views of artwork at the wildfowl trust in England. Hehas traveled to over 36 countries researching endangered wildlife everywhere. www.gaminiratnavira.com

Lodge Horseback Adventure is a place where horses roam free and huge 4,000 acres is pristine primary growth rainforest. The opportunity to encounter evidence of both the ancient Maya and a historic logging tradition. Half of the land here is surrounded by the jungles of Sri Lanka and worked with him on the set of elephant postage stamps for Sri Lanka and the world wildlife fund. In all Gamini illustrated 38 postage stamps for the country. He has illustrated several species for Birdlife International. He was a member of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds.

Situated on the peaceful Belize River and central to all of Belize, Banana Bank Belize Jungle Lodge Horseback Adventure is a place where horses roam free and huge iguanas laze in the branches above the bamboo. The land here is surrounded by evidence of both the ancient Maya and a historic logging tradition. Half of the 4,000 acres is pristine primary growth rainforest. The opportunity to encounter and feel the true spirit and atmosphere of this beautiful country is around every curve in the river and each fork of the jungle trail. John and Carolyn Carr, the owners and managers of Banana Bank, offer personal and hospitable accommodations with infinite activities. There are over 80 horses bred especially for all levels of trail riding. A specialty is Jungle Horseback riding. Also available are day trips including visiting Maya sites, caving, cave tubing, river trips, jungle walks, birding, star gazing, or simply relaxing and enjoying the grounds of the lodge. Banana Bank is a place far from the real world and near to the things you have dreamed of.

Rainforest Expeditions is a Peruvian ecotourism company founded in 1992 by Eduardo Nycader and Kurt Holle with the purpose of combining providing authentic educational experiences that support the conservation of the areas where they operate.
